My life has been a tapestry
of rich and royal hue, an everlasting vision of
an everchanging view, a wondrous woven magic in bits of blue and gold,
a tapestry to feel and see,
impossible to hold.

Tapestries

Bits and pieces of experience entwine to form the tapestries of our lives. Woven together are many fibers of contrasting hues.

Changing scenes are reflected and our growth is recorded. Each new day, each new encounter and each new dream add to our unique tapestries.

Our times here are only a small part of an uncompleted whole.

Captured here are some of the threads that combine to create the essence of our lives.

Stitching away, in rythym with time, everyday patterns form the bases for our tapestries. familiarities

Our Last Wills and Testaments

- I, TERRY BARRETT, being of sound mind and body, leave to all those on Bus#39, Mr. Ryan, Elizabeth, Regina, Caroline and Denise Seus, and hope that you can maintain your sanity. And to all the Faculty, many thanks.
- I, HELEN BASSO, being in full control of all my senses, leave: to my sister Beatrice all my old uniforms and a prayer, 'cause she'll need it; to my Junior sister Cathy, all our memories in hope that they will continue; to my Freshman sister Susan, the hope that someday she may become F.T.A. president; and to all my friends the good times.
- I, THERESA BROSNIHAN, leave to my Junior sister Regina, one happy senior year at A.S.J.
- I, CATHERINE BROWN, being of sound mind and body hereby leave to Sister Maureen Montgomery an evacuated dining room on Friday mornings (so that she may conduct her class meetings without the presence of seniors). I leave to Sister Winifred Maria the correct positions for first, second and third place vowels and all the shortforms I could never remember in shorthand, but most of all, I want to thank her for all her patience, understanding and guidance. To my Junior sisters, Debbie and Patti, the hope that they will have a happy senior year along with all our great memories. And to my freshman sister Diane, all the happiness I had at my four years at A.S.J.
- I. PATTI BRUEN, leave to all my close friends, especially Anne, all the fun times and terrific memories. To all my little friends on the bus I leave all the bumps and holes in the road. To Rosanne, I leave a pot of coffee. And finally to Sister Cynthia, Sister Rose Matthew and all my fellow Glee Club members I leave many more years of wonderful concerts.
- I, PAT BUBLA, bequeath to my Junior sister Nancy my great knowledge of Spanish, and memories of the ski trip. Also, to anyone who may have Sister Lorna, don't ever wear colored shirts, chew gum and beware of Thursdays.
- I, MARI BUCH, leave my locker, softball sneakers and much love to my Sophomore sister Paula Uruburu. To Gabrielle Keenan I leave 100 burned hamburgers and a smile. To Sister Consuela I leave a bunch of mispronounced Que's. To Sister Joan I leave the unwashed boards in our homeroom. To Sister Lorna I leave all my grammatical errors and my badly typed index cards from the English Resource Center file. To everyone I leave all my love, all my talking and my warm thanks for many happy times.
- I, PEGGY COREY, do hereby leave: to my Junior sister Santa, another year of room 212 at 8:15 a.m. and a large supply of attendence slips; to Sister Consuela, I leave my entire collection of late passes and the memory of our first three years of Leadership complete with a free pass to McDonald's; to Jodi, my wrinkled sheet music; to Cathy Nadal, my well worn copy of "We Shall Overcome" to be read and enjoyed in the library (Good Luck!); to the Phys. Ed. Department some joy and a prayer they need it; to Pat, Nancy and Helen, I leave a smile and a thank you. Finally, I leave hoping to give whatever I can to whomever I can
- I, ANN MARIE COYLE, being of sound mind and no body, hereby leave: to baby, all the cute guys at H.F.; to Goldstein a happy marriage; to Joceyln, what she wants most; to Liz, revenge at J.D.; to George, the hope that she never gets fatigued; to Mrs. Synder, a can of Lysol; to the gym, the hope that we'll someday see the showers; to anyone who takes slimnastics, Ben-Gay; to any French students, my best of luck and a strong stomach; to the Mothers, a hope that they always enjoy life; to Christa, a clean locker; to Joan, a Corvette; to the nuns, good luck; to Sophie, many good memories; and to Ed, all my love. Also, I hereby leave finally. (It's certainly about time).
 - 1. NANCY DIONISIO, being of sound mind and body leave to the - school "one bird's parking space"; I leave to "that Linda" memories of Brooklyn, concerts and all the other hippy outings, but most of all, to you Linda, I leave a scholarship to a swimming college, so that you will major in the breast stroke. I leave to Lisa Pogue the courage to practice what she preaches! To Carol and Mary I leave memories of "Laughing at all the faces." And the students and faculty I leave behind.

- I, JANE DOHENY, leave: to Sharon, Joanne, Vera, Mary Lynn, Linda, Marie and Eileen all the memories of our crazy times at A.S.J. and the best of luck in their senior year; to Miss Servidea the bulletin boards of 220 which were almost, but not quite finished; to Mr. Lawlor my interesting, but hopeless sculptures.
- 1, PATTI DONOHUE, leave to my friends Kaydrom, Valeria, Tellybird, Moify, Phillmore, Muzzy, Jonathin, Jo-Jo, Davis, Steph, and Valvo, our getaway car, minus one radio and a broken muffler. To my pal Archie Tawlor, I leave a year's supply of styrofoam coffee cups.
- 1. DONNA FERRANTE, leave my crocheting needle to Robin Pierce, my wonderful Junior sister; I leave the rest of the student body my deepest sympathy and the ability to endure the hardships of the Academy. And to Sister Carletta I leave all my love and gratitude for all she's done for me.
- I, LINDA FERRERI, leave to my Junior sister Vera, good luck and B.S. in her Senior year. To my sister Ellen, all my Biology and Chemistry notebooks and much, much happiness. And to Sister Maureen, just thanks.
- I, MAUREEN FINN, leave to Vera Pinto, all my art projects; to Ellen Legendre, I leave 1000 "smarties"; to Eileen Doheny, I leave my collection of Justin E. Doheny pens, and to the rest of the school, I leave ... my father.
- I, DIANE FITZSIMMONS, being of sound mind, do hereby leave to Evelyn, Joanne, Linda and Mary, four empty coke bottles and a bill for room service. To my Junior sisters: Joanne my violin: Angy, my bus pass. To Sister Lucille, I leave three perfect flow charts and a promise. To Sister Mary Lou, I dedicate my book Everything I've Always Wanted To Know About History, But Was Afraid To Ask; and to Sister Joan Larkin, I leave my thanks. To everyone, I leave my best wishes, and hope that your years here are as great as mine were.
- 1, JEANNE FLAHERTY, leave one frazzled computer and a flustered sine function. To Janet, I leave an open door, and to the Juniors, I leave the sunrise and daisies and my best wishes.
- I, KATHY GOLDSTEIN, being of questionable sanity, do hereby leave to the following: to Sister Luciana (oops! Lucille) a permanent maid to keep her classroom immaculately clean; to Sister Joan Larkin, remembrances of my attitude, my "love" of Math, and her classes. (Come to Mother!); to my Sophomore sister Candy, six pink roses, and they should be given to her when she gets her ring; to my Junior sister Nancy, I leave memories of our bus, Harvey, and the good times; to Christa, I leave a one-way ticket to Fla.; to Amie, a surprise in thanks for her "wisdom" and help through all my problems. Good luck to you and E.A.F. and don't forget my invitation come four years from now: to Vicki, a private phone number: to the girls on my bus, a new bus driver; to Sue, Annie, and Diana, the back seats and strong nerves; to the girls in my advisor station good luck; and to all my friends Don't Forget the Good Times!
- 1. DIANNE GRAYSON, soon to be going "My Way", do leave the following: to Sister Beth "Smiling Faces"; to Sister St. Edwin A.P. assignments completed "Day by Day"; to Sister Margaret Secour a generation to appreciate the "Sounds of Silence"; to the Student Body—Beethoven's "Ninth Symphony 4th movement"; to the faculty—the prayer that God will "Bless the Beasts and the Children".
 - I, MAUREEN HEALY, leave to my sister, Kathleen, 8:10 every morning and a plea to listen to what I've been telling her for two years; to Mary Sue, Room F in the chapel arcade and a million unmatched negatives; to Sharon, the caption counting for the Field Day layout and many memories of Bobby Beagle; to Jeannie, greasers and proof for 21; to Mary Pat, sick jokes and a license; to S. Joan Larkin, a dashing commuter and a frustrated computer; to Ms. Servidea, orders from der Führer; to S. Lorna, thanks, and the hope that someone, someday, will finally get your last name right.

I, MARY HESTON, being of partially sound mind and body do hereby leave: to my Junior sister, Mary Sue, a pocket size instamatic camera, a partially finished photography mini course, my messy locker that is half painted, and last but not least, Senior Stairs (!); to Monica, my Sophomore sister, anything in my messy locker she wants and needs (if she can find it); to Paula, Donna, Suzy, Beth and Pat, an old, broken down Morley bus that doesn't have heat in the winter and windows that are sealed in the summer.

I, LUCY JONES, leave: to Jeanne Teutonico, all my music and half a piano bench — may she enjoy her senior year at St. Joseph; to Pat Craig, my lock from my locker so she can keep all her books in one place.

I. VICKI KLINE, leave: to my sister, Anne, a lot of luck, lunch money and 2 more great years; to Janet Mrozowski, a red cape and my very organized scheduling book; to the sophomores on the Smithtown bus (Diana, Annie and Susan), the last seats; to Nancy and Kathy, one more year of fun in orchestra; to Annie Gage, one free trip to Villanova; finally, to all my friends, the faculty and the Senior class, my thanks for 4 great years.

To Sister Joan Larkin I leave every rotten math book in creation and every "extra help" math class; To Sister St. Edwin I leave my history homework excuses and free Wednesday afternoons; To Jeannie Ryan I leave Butch and Slotch in the bar, a stack of Golden Oldies, an "over 20" list, lots of Friday nights cruisin' and groovin', and the hope that you don't forget to be an Academy Girl over the summer — and Jean ... PLandT's. To Mary Pat Ryan I leave a collection of sick puns, the 45 "Ronnie", lots of sibling rivalry and a foot brake on your side of the car. Hang in there, M.P. Bye. Love, GINA.

I, SUSAN LEGENDRE, do hereby leave: to my sister Ellen, a rotten banana to put in someone else's locker, and much luck for another three years here; to my little sister Jayne Levesque, much love and many thanks for being such a great sister; to my sophomore sister Diane Oliveri, an empty seat on a smoky bus; to my Junior sister Eileen Doheny, senior stairs, and a hopeless football team at LaSalle; to Sister Consuela, much thanks for being a great advisor, and carrying that out in every sense of the word; to the rest of the school, I leave the rest of the NUNS—Good Luck!

I, ROSEANN LoFRISCO, being of sound mind and unsound body, do hereby bequeath: to Miss Walsh, one overworked heart that will never be the same after 4 mods of basketball on Mondays; to the next chairman of the Father-Daughter Dance, one slightly used pass to the nearest mental hospital, to Sister Lorraine, a grant-in-aid application, a Future Homemakers of America club that does not know exactly what it's doing, and finally, a big THANK YOU; to the next president of Future Homemakers of America, a kindergarten class on Thursday afternoons, and a tape recording of people snickering; to my friends, one line I wouldn't touch with a ten foot pole, and lots of thanks, love and happiness; to Eileen, one more year in our "fun" homeroom, and much happiness in her senior year; to the school, seven of the most wonderful years of my life; and to everyone, I leave love, happiness, peace and quiet (now that I'm leaving), and while I have the chance, I hereby leave.

We, the former Mafia of St. Joe's, leave to the Nuns, boring, quiet, uneventful days in the years to come; also, we leave the retreats, the gazebos, the ladder to the bell tower, the afternoon dips in the pool, and all our extra late passes (stamped). Finally, we leave the Moose Room and Gail.

I, PAT MANN, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave: to Sister Beth Johnson, all my late passes; to James, a clean piece of paper; to Sister Margaret Secour, all my passes to the T.V.; and last of all, I leave this school with a lot of great memories.

I, CAROLINE MAO, leave my tea pot to my Sophomore sister Lori Acker; I leave all my worries of finding a college to my Junior sister Nancy W.; to Sister St. Edwin, I leave three Chinese needles; and I leave many happy memories and many thanks to Sister Mary Denis.

I, KATHI MARIN, being of sound mind and body, leave: to my Junior sister Laura, the memory of the summer of '72; to my sophomore sisters Regina and Colleen, all the records we used over the summer, and more to add to the collection; to my freshman sister Doreen, all my late excuses; to Sister Mary Ryan, a thank you for everything, especially for being there when I came in at 8:40; finally, to my sister Susan, I leave all the hope that she will have friendships and 4 years as great as mine.

I, CATHI McNAMARA, leave: to Gail Atch, Vera Beacham's school ring at the bottom of faculty pool; the image of a perfect young lady to Sister Joan Larkin; long conversations with Sister Afra. And finally, to Gage, Manley, and Atch I leave a year's supply of "strike anywhere, all-weather, never-go-out matches".

I, PATTI McNAMARA, leave: all the "Peers" to Sister Mary Robert; all the "Friends" to Sister Rose Matthew; all the "Incidentallys" to Sister Catherine Weil; all the "Big, fat juicys" to Sister Joan; all the assemblies to Sister Pat Melley; all the late essays to Sister Lorna; and to Sister Mary Elizabeth Ryan, I leave Gail with love. And finally, I leave to Sister Consuela, Ocean Beach and "Play it Again, Sam".

I, KATHY MOSTKIEWICZ, leave: to my baby sister Ellen, my locker, and all its treasured contents, including my red rain hat; to baby sis Gina, all the games LaSalle should have won, but never did. As for my Jr. sisters, to Michelle I leave my seat in the back of the bus and the Long Island Expressway. To Vera I leave a year's supply of fortune cookies (with good fortunes). I leave much love and thanks to all my baby sisters and friends, and to the faculty, a joyful farewell.

I wish Elaine all the happiness and fun in her last year at St. Joseph's; To Maggie I leave my old Trig. notebook and 10 required programs; and I leave Beth a one-way ticket to Puerto Rico. To Ms. Servidea I leave the Best Mentor of the Year Award, and to Joanne, Anne and Maureen all the memories of every groovy concert (especially Chaminade), and the name Hildy. Lovingly, HEIDI.

I, EILEEN MULLEE, leave best wishes for the next 2 years to my sophomore sisters MaryJane and Sue. To my junior sister, Jeanne, I leave all my lateness excuses to Health classes; may she use them well. To my other junior sister, Sue, I leave 2 tons of computer tape to be burned and the ashes given to Sister Luciana. To Sister St. Edwin (or Mary Lou?), I leave 300 sheets of blank loose leaf paper. To my sister Cathy, I leave my "How to Drive a Car" handbook and much love. And to all my senior sisters I leave a grateful thanks for the greatest four years. May you have peace and happiness always!

I, ANNIE NEAGLE, leave to my Junior sister, Linda Martucci, my famous gym bloomers and to Jeannie Ryan, I leave all my letters from typing class, which she enjoyed reading so thoroughly. Also, I leave my typing class and Regina Kirby to find someone else to help her. And, finally, I leave to all the Juniors a word of advice: Make as few visits to the beauty parlor as possible.

I, JOAN PANICO, being of sound mind and positive attitude, do hereby leave A.S.J. two years of French tests that are still unsigned, and to Linda and Mike, Ann Marie and Ed, all the marriage manuals in the Religion Resource Center. To Terry, may you always have the patience you have now; and to the Sisters of St. Joseph's I leave a roll of air mail stamps for sending my Alumnae notices to Clear Water Beach, Tampa, Florida; to Sister Mary Ryan, many thanks for your sincerity; it will always be remembered.

To my remaining teammates, I, JEAN PELKOWSKI, do leave: my half of the slightly wobbly ping-pong table, one worn out first aid kit (X-Rays extra), and approximately 100 tennis balls that were swallowed by the "hungry green ivy".

I, MAGGIE PELKOWSKI, leave to my sister B-Beth the problem of getting herself out of bed in the morning; to my friend, Jeannie Ryan, ngratulations he class of '73 our Friday night discussions at Lambert's, hoping she will make good use of them; to Andy, our bus driver, one box of Band-Aids for his head; and finally to the Junior Class I leave an apple and something to polish it with.

I. LISA POGUE, being of sound mind and body, leave to Saint Joseph's all of my memories, and now that I'm gone, I leave to Judy Branch a successful high school experience. I leave to all Saint Joseph boarders a strong stomach. To all my friends I leave a thank-you for being my friends and making my high school years good ones. To the faculty who have had me I leave the hope that someone like me comes here into your classes. Most of all I leave, being healthy and quite sane.

We, CAROL and MARI, leave laughing, and we wish many happy memories, fun together and happiness to Linda and Nanci. To Sister Joan Larkin's Geometry Class we leave two illegal absences from class; to Sister St. Edwin, "one day of complete silence"; and to our Junior sisters, Marie and Renee, a wish for as much fun and happiness as we've had.

I, KATHLEEN SANIAL, leave to my sister, Mary, all my math notebooks; to My Junior sister, Jeanne Teutonico, my shelf in the music cabinet: my computer tapes I leave to the next class; and my locker, complete with all old papers, to anyone who wants it.

I, CANDI SCHAEFER, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave happiness and love to all my friends and I wish them the best of luck. I also give much thanks to Sister Maureen who has been my good friend through the last three years.

I, LORRAINE SCHULTZ, leave to my Junior sister, Karen, and to all the people I have shared my four years with, my thanks and undying friendship.

I, RESE SCHULZ, leave: to Cindy, our night out on the town and an Austin Healey and our friend at the delicatessen; to Cathi, all our good times together; though few, we had good times. Remember Gertz's and the time I didn't sleep over and the parties. (B.B., S.O.S.); to Gail, a very special friendship, the Lone Ranger, good memories and someone you can always talk to; to Nina, Arnold, Fritz's and a whole truckload of Burger King hamburgers. (Remember the prom.); to Vera, $50 and all the happiness she wants; to Patti, the Tchaikovsky records, peanut butter and Jimmy Morrell; to my bus, I leave; to Sister Dolores, a new me, and thanks for your patience. To all my other friends I leave many happy times and a lot of luck in future years.

I, MARY SHEEHAN, leave a decent burial for my 11 unfinished programs and 13 miles of computer tape; 8th mod lunch; a key to 211 for Diane; and to my Senior sisters, all the luck and happiness in this new world we are about to find.

I, ANNA SIMONETTI, would like to thank the Senior class and faculty, who have helped me grow in wisdom and knowledge. To Sister Mary Lou Tweedy I leave my love and thanks for all she has done for me!

I, CAROL SOMERS, leave to St. Joes's memories of a wonderful four years and my thanks to all the people who made it possible. I would also like to leave Pat Carlson, my Junior sister, and all her "little" friends (especially Sue Pierse), a box of super deluxe brownies. To Lorraine and Cathy, I leave the best of luck always.

I, DEBBIE SORCI, leave: to my good friend Vera, one elevator, to be used as transportation to and from the art room; to Michelle, a year's supply of macrame string; to my little sister, Ellen, the STRENGTH, COURAGE and DESIRE to carry out three more years; to Anne Kline, one extremely large McGovern button; to Susan, one copy of The Essentials and Fundamentals of Sarcasm; to Diana, one six-foot B.G. poster, complete with a pair of binoculars; to Marie, one powerful megaphone; to Vicky, Kathy and Kathy, much thanks for all the good laughs we shared; to Mary Jane and Kathy, a free lifetime enrollment in my favorite class (and may you always be highly active pupils); to my understanding advisor, the hope that she will LIVE HAPPILY EVER AFTER. To all of my other friends, to my great advisor, and to all of the great kids a

A.S.J. who have influenced me in any way, I leave you the biggest thank-you in existence. I love you all.

I. NANCY STAPLETON, leave the Academy sadly, as I begin my long journey into life. I wish everyone peace, love, Wayne Newton records, tye-dye, sit ins, nonfilter cigarettes and all those groovy things that enriched my life.

I, COLLEEN TOBIN, (Toby), leave my half of the slightly wobbly ping-pong table; 8 pairs of glasses; the A.S.J. record for typing — negative two words per minute; 3,983 sheets of rejected colored loose leaf; Oscar's garbage can; 27 "secret" dogs, cats, and other various livestock, (now you know who lets them in); the first computer ever to be driven insane; my private "thinking" spot by the horse ring for future mad philosophers; many happy memories, and much, much, love.

I, ARLENE TONTI, leave to my Sophomore sister, Meredith, all past experiences and my memories. To the freshmen (Laurie, Claire, Rosanne, Lou) on my bus I leave laughter and bumpy roads. To my Junior sister I leave a smile.

I, LINDA TRIOLA, being of sound mind and body, do hereby leave to THAT Nancy Ann one scholarship to Eden's School of Physical Development; to Lisa Pogue, a lifetime reservation on the 4th floor Academy Suite; and to Sister Consuela, all the late passes and absent notes she never got.

I. JOANNE VERELINE, leave to my Junior sister, Debbie, my locker, half decorated. To my Sophomore sister, Gloria, I leave all my happy memories at St. Joe's and very successful years to come. To my other Sophomore sister, Robin, I leave the B flat minor scale. To my freshman sister, Peggyanne, I leave slippery seats on the bus and success in her next three years at St. Joe's. To Sister Joan Larkin I leave all the attendance slips and Enrichment papers to enhance your culture and development. To Sister Mary Lou I bequeath my Advanced Placement essays. Finally, to Nancy Wittler, I leave success in her Senior year and another year with Sister Joan in the advisor station.

I, KATHLEEN HOGAN, being of very sound mind and slightly sound body, do hereby leave to: S. Lorna, an organized briefcase and m study of American newspapers. Enjoy!; S. Mary Lou, my opinions of the American Past; S. Joan Larkin, a painting of the Crusades with the inscription "Onward Christian Soldiers!"; Chris Nurge, my junior sister, many happy memories and also Senior year — good luck with it: Paula Urubura, Morley's back seat, because you're the only Morleyite who can handle it; next year's Student Council, $, $, $; my classmates, every intellectual word I have ever used, including "one"; my school, the best years of my life and the hope that every Academy graduate will remember her years with the happiness that I will. And, on that note, I leave.

Acknowledgments

In the Pines, 1973 would like to thank: our hard-working moderator, Ms. Servidea, who, in her first year as moderator, helped with every aspect of this book; Sister Lorna for getting this book off the ground and for her photography advice and assistance; Sister Mary Ryan, who took care of all the finances; the students, parents, faculty and businesses who supported the drive; Frank Ball, Jr. and Josten's American Yearbook Company, the printers of this book; Macy's Photography Studio and Mrs. Tiger for the Senior formals; Michael Kulak, who was responsible for the Senior informals; Carole King and Colgems Music Corp. for permission to print the song "Tapestry"; all those who helped and encouraged this book in any way; and finally, the editors and staff, without whom this book would not be: Maureen Healy, Editor-in-
